ORDER REGARDING PUBLIC COMMENT ON PROPOSED CONSENT JUDGMENT

On March 30, 2012, Plaintiff and Defendant filed a Renewed Motion for Entry of Consent Judgment and Final Order (ECF No. 160). As detailed in this court's Opinion and Order denying the parties' first motion for entry of consent judgment (ECF No. 149), the court will accept comment from interested non-parties, subject to the following conditions:

Comments shall be submitted in typewritten form, shall list the case name and case number at the top of the first page, and shall state that the comments are submitted "regarding Plaintiff's and Defendant's Renewed Motion for Entry of Consent Judgment and Final Order (ECF No. 160)." Submissions from non-lawyers, and submissions that do not reference statutory and/or case law authority, shall be limited to five (5) pages. Submissions from lawyers citing statutory and case law authority shall be limited to fifteen (15) pages. The court will not entertain motions to exceed the page limits.

Comments shall be limited to the issues of (1) whether the proposed consent decree violates state or federal law, and (2) whether the proposed consent decree is fair, adequate, reasonable, and consistent with the public interest. All comments shall be filed no later than April 27, 2012.

Lawyers shall electronically file their submissions as letters to the court through the court's ECF system, per Local Civil Rule 5.7(d). Non-lawyers may file their submissions with the Clerk's Office in person or by mailing them to the following address:

Clerk, U.S. District Court
B-35 Federal Building
410 W. Michigan Ave.
Kalamazoo, MI 49007.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Date: April 5, 2012
